THE STUKELEYS PARISH COUNCIL NEWS

May I introduce myself, my name is Carole Pollock and I am your new Parish Clerk/RFO for The Stukeleys Parish Council. I am also the Parish Clerk for Hemingford Abbots Parish Council and I live in Hemingford Grey with my family. I am looking forward to taking on this role, as you know, Michael Newman has been in post for 38 years, so please bear with me as it may take me a little time to gain local knowledge. I hope to be as approachable, helpful and as concerned about The Stukeleys parish issues as he was.....and you all are.

Nine Parish Councillors, two County Councillors, two Parish Clerks and six residents attended the Parish Council Meeting held at Great Stukeley Village Hall on the 3rd March 2014.

During the Opening Meeting, following an enquiry from a resident the meeting was informed that the repair works to Footpath 13 should be completed by the end of the financial year. The contribution to the total cost of repair to Footpath 13 by the Parish Council is to be confirmed. Concern was expressed over the damage to the verges in Pringle Way due to loose domestic fowl.

County Councillors gave an update on County issues, including the current position with regard to the A14 improvements, the Cromwell Museum and the decision by the Cambridgeshire County Council (CCC) to raise council tax by 1.99%.

Huntingdonshire District Council (HDC) has acknowledged the Council's request for two sites (agreed at the February Parish Council Meeting) to be considered for development of affordable housing. Additional information for planning application 1300730OUT for the Ermine Street Business Park Extension was considered by the Council and they resolved to recommend refusal for the following reasons: - loss of good quality agricultural land, development of this green field site unnecessary, transport and traffic issues, development conflicts with HDC green infrastructure strategy and the development would have an unacceptable impact on the landscape. The response also mentioned concerns over the location of pelican crossings and the requirement for additional bus shelters.

A brief update on the Alconbury Weald development was reported. Although the Parish Council has not welcomed the development, it is now working to mitigate its impact. Rebecca Britton (Urban & Civic) was questioned over the location of the bollard in Owl Lane, she explained that its position was determined by its distance from the junction; however if the Parish Council required it to be moved it would be moved.

The main work at the Playing Fields has been completed, only the seeding is still to be done. It was reported that the tree that was down on Footpath 13 had been dealt with and Footpath 12 had now been cleared. The provision of a litter bin in Owl End was discussed at length but it was resolved that the Parish Council would not spend £500 on a litter bin in this financial year but would review the problem of dog fouling and waste at a later date. The verges at Green End are in a very bad condition and a white post is missing, the CCC Highways department are to be requested to issue a restoration order to the farmer who has damaged the verges. There is still a problem with a blocked drain at the land covering 4-10 Ermine Street, the Parish Clerk is to pursue the matter. Unfortunately, the Council's application for funding from the 2014/15 Local Highways Initiative Scheme was not successful.

Cllr Sue Parkin thanked retiring Parish Clerk Michael Newman for all his hard work and commitment and wished him the best of luck for the future.

The next Parish Council Meeting is to be held on Monday 7th April at 7:30pm at Little Stukeley Village Hall. Please note that the Parish Council Elections are to be held on 22nd May 2014, if you are interested in standing for election as a Parish Councillor or would just like some more information about the role please contact me for an informal chat.

LITTLE STUKELEY VILLAGE HALL Village Hall Functions 2014

The list of the functions planned for 2014 is below. The committee have attempted to provide an even spread of events over the year and to avoid clashes with functions organised by the church committee.

Sat 10th	May	“Bond 007” themed night.
Sun 13th	July	BBQ and games afternoon.
Sat 6th	Sept	Flower Show.
Sat 1st/8th	Nov	Bonfire & Fireworks (date TBC)
Sat 13th	Dec	Christmas Dinner

Do make a note in your diaries; we need your support for all of these events if they are to be a success.

Don't forget the Social Club meets regularly on Sundays from 1:00 to 2:30 pm. Membership is open to all residents of Little Stukeley and a limited number of associate memberships can be offered to those living to those living nearby who would like to join in.

ROYAL BRITISH LEGION POPPY APPEAL COFFEE MORNING

Once again we held an enjoyable British Legion Coffee Morning. This year the Handyperson from the Poppy Calls came, he introduced himself and explained to some what his role was, in effect the Legion's Poppy Calls provides a Handyperson Service, dedicated to those who have served or are serving in the Armed Forces or the dependant of someone who served including widows. It is designed to help those who are unable to carry out small repairs and minor adaptations to their homes. I have a few leaflets giving details, let me know if you require one.

This year from the morning we banked £414.22 this was slightly up on last year. Success was again due to the excellent band of helpers I have, those people who made generous donations and those members of the public who supported the event. To date the 2013-14 appeal in the Stukeleys stands at £2818

Dog On Lead Attacked

I was walking my Boxer, Billy, down the bridle way in Great Stukeley on Saturday 1st March. I could see two dogs coming towards me. My dog was on a lead.

The owners looked like they tried to put the dogs on a lead but failed.

The two dogs then both went for my dog. One hung off his tail and the other was growling and biting.

The two large dogs were identical brown and black woolly looking dogs about the same size as my Boxer dog.

Then the man shouted to Sarah, the lady with blonde hair, to put then on a lead.

He asked if my dog was OK. I said I think so. On getting my dog home I saw he had a nasty wound and I had to take him straight to the vets.

If you are dogs' owners or if you know them please call me as any conscientious dog owner would.

Thank you.

Legion Helping Maintain the Homes of the Armed Forces Community in Cambridgeshire

Having trouble with small household repairs or minor adaptations around your home? The Royal British Legion's Poppy Calls service may be able to help.

Poppy Calls offers a trusted, secure, high quality service which helps members of the Armed Forces community live independent lives and stay in their own homes longer in old age. The initiative is offered to beneficiaries who qualify for assistance from The Royal British Legion, which includes those who have served in the Armed Forces and their widows or dependents.

The service is FREE to those who are in receipt of a means tested benefit, or who aged 75 are or over. In all other cases, a charge applies.

In addition to the maintenance service provided by Poppy Calls, all staff are case worker trained and will assess a beneficiary's needs to ensure they get the help and support they need. Staff carry Legion identification, drive branded vehicles, and are thoroughly DBS checked.

Cambridgeshire has a dedicated Poppy Calls Fitter in Derek Amery, who is available to help and assist between 9am and 5pm on weekdays. In 2013, Legion Fitters assisted over 4,500 people across the country.

To find out more about the service call 0800 032 0306.
It costs nothing to ask and we may be able to help..!!

HAMPTON COURT PALACE
Tuesday 16th September 2014

EXCITING NEWS! An unexpected press release was issued in mid-January 2014 regarding the discovery of the Royal Chocolate Kitchens at Hampton Court Palace.

This 18th century Chocolate Kitchen was used by Thomas Tosier the chocolate maker to George I and George II and will open to the public in August 2014 at Hampton Court Palace for the first time in 300 years. This is the only surviving Royal Chocolate Kitchen in the country and features the original stove as well as much of the furniture and equipment with many of its original fittings intact.

Recent research uncovered the precise location of the Royal Chocolate Kitchen in the baroque Palace's Fountain Court. Despite having been used as a storeroom for many years the kitchen is remarkably well preserved.

The kitchen will be dressed with ceramics, copper equipment and bespoke chocolate serving silver- and glassware of the time. This new display explores the story of the Palaces' responsibility for chocolate making for the King.

During our visit to Hampton Court Palace, on Tuesday 16th September 2014, I have especially requested that my group be able to visit the Royal Chocolate Kitchen with our Blue Badge Holder Guide Jeanie Carmichael. Jeanie will be with us throughout our entire visit.

Do join us on this wonderfully exciting day which will be filled with history dating back through the reigns of Kings Henry VIII, William III, George I and George II.

The price per person of this exceptional tour is £ 39.50 which includes the coach journey to and from London, the entrance fee and tips for our Blue Badge Holder Guide and coach driver.

Thursford's Christmas Spectacular 2014

REALLY TERRIFIC NEWS! On Thursday 27th February 2014 I received notification that my application for 50 seats had been accepted for the 2014 THURSFORD CHRISTMAS SPECTACULAR.

We were very lucky to be assigned everything I had requested.

The date for our visit is: SUNDAY 16TH NOVEMBER 2014 for the 2 pm Performance

I have been able to secure for you Thursford fans De Luxe seating. Our seats will be in the areas A/B/C/D and E which includes front row seats in the stalls. The remaining seats run from the second through the fifth rows from the stage.

It will be fun to have the front row seats which have not been allocated to me for some years. GREAT SEAT POSITIONS-GREAT VIEWING.

Please watch this space for the cover price and further details in a future Stukeleys' Parish Magazine.

The Beechwood Beauty Boat Trip
Tuesday 10th June 2014

“There are few places in England to beat the Cliveden Reach in Maidenhead”- Charles Dickens.

We will meet our Blue Badge Holder Guide, Amanda Bryett, just after eleven o'clock for 'elevenses' on Tuesday 10th June 2014. It is impossible to avoid the temptation to browse a bit in Marlow before returning to our coach to follow the trail along the upper reaches of the Thames that has lost none of its magical charm which has enchanted onlookers for centuries.

We arrive in Henley, Queen of the Thames, for a good long lunch break at one in the afternoon with plenty of time to explore the riverside and town. We recommend investing in a cream bun to take with you on the boat to go with your afternoon tea. At the start of the afternoon we wind our way through the Quarry Woods to Cookham where the painter Sir Stanley Spencer was born and worked. At 4pm we board our specially hired pleasure cruiser at Boulter's Lock, near Maidenhead, for our much looked forward to Beechwood Beauty Boat Trip. There will be a bar onboard where you can buy hot and cold drinks.

Our journey on the river to where the Thames cuts its way through with beech trees towering above us. This is the stretch of river famous for Swan Upping, Wind in the Willows and Three Men in a Boat. There are breathtaking views of the hanging woodlands of Cliveden and glimpses of the house itself which became synonymous with political and social intrigue culminating The Profumo Affair in the early 1960's. Stephen Ward, a new musical by Andrew Lloyd Webber on the Profumo Affair, recently opened in London.

Please join us on this wonderful day's adventure by calling to make a reservation. The price per person is £37.50. This includes our coach journey there and back, our cruise on the Thames and tips for our Guide, who will be with us for the whole day, and our driver.

Heartfelt thanks to Great Stukeley Village Hall Management Committee

We both would like to extend our thanks to the Village Hall Management Committee for the Commemorative Plaque acknowledging the years we have served on the Committee, together with a unique collage of photographs depicting events that we have been involved with. These were presented to us at a retirement dinner provided by Mrs Carol Buttercase and attended by past and present Committee Members, which we thoroughly enjoyed.

We have both enjoyed our time on the Committee which spans a period of 40 years and we decided that now is the time to stand down for younger and more energetic Members to take our places. Many thanks.

The Stukeleys Heritage Group
Invites you to its annual outing to

Bletchley Park

Wednesday 17th September 2014

Our annual outing will, this year, be to visit the World War Two code breaking centre at Bletchley Park. The site was a closely guarded secret for the period of the war – and for 30 years afterwards. One of our former residents, Mrs Sue Winn, was one of the WRNS who worked on Alan Turin's "Bombe", the machine which decrypted the Enigma.

We will leave from Great Stukeley Village Hall at 10 am, to arrive at the site by 11 am, to be greeted by staff and have time for a coffee/tea, before exploring the site. A one course hot luncheon with coffee or tea is included as part of the cost of the trip which is £33.00.

We will leave Bletchley at 4 pm, so there will be plenty of time for you to see much of the site.

Please note that numbers for this visit are strictly limited to just 35 so if you would like to come, let me know asap.. Payment in cash to me by 31st August, please.

Martyn Fox, Editor

Bob's Bumbblings

So there I was in one of the village hostelrys expounding my views on the universe and all that are in it when up comes this jolly chappie who states that he is the editor of the village magazine and asks if I could possibly write a column on an occasional basis as I had strong views on things.

Well after I persuaded him to loosen my tongue with liquid I said yes and that's why dear readers you have this before you.

So how did your day go today? Mine started off by taking the dear lady's mother grocery shopping, a task I undertake every Saturday for the multitude of sins a chap obviously accrues during a week of any marriage. Now we go to Sainsbury's to do this chore; there are other shops as I am sure you know. Why I hear you ask Sainsbury's? Well it has many advantages. Some of these are that it is only but a short drive from the old girls house (able to say 'old girl' as she is 86; as she constantly reminds me!), it opens early and has very few brats running around or wailing at 07.45hrs.

This brings me on to parking at the supermarket. Now we have the 'normal' car spaces; we have the 'disabled' car spaces (and rightly so) and we have the spaces that really get my goat; yes the 'mums with children' spaces. The latter of course being parked outside the store or at least in the front row bar one.

Now when I was a child, all those many moons ago, if you were under the age of say six or seven you went with your parents to partake in the weekly shopping trip and they parked where they could and either popped you in the push chair, stuck a pair of reins on you or held your hand. And they sometimes had to get the bus into town as they had no car or if they did have a car, quite often, they would park far away from the shops or, as in my case, they went into many shops not just one. Now what happened? Well we had to walk; remember that? We perambulated down what was commonly known as the pavement before going in and out of shops. The point here is that we little creatures had to walk, yes walk, unlike all the little dears these days who it would seem have no ability to do so; hence the front row mum and children parking spot.

And if you were older than six or seven years of age? Well you went to the shops on your pushbike or walked or took the bus. And do you know what? Yep, you did it often as not on your own with a list of items to bring back as children then had to do chores and not just give lip and slouch around.

And so going back to parking spaces what space should these 'mums and children's' spaces be replaced by as they are not in reality needed as I have stated above. Well the group that is missing is the 'old un'. And they my dear reader at least have over lifetime of taxation subsidised those with half a dozen children and those single mothers who use the said spaces; the oldies possibly have good reason to need a closer space through frailty or use a stick and so cannot walk far or fast and also need to be shown some respect and civility by the younger members of society.

And so this leads us nicely back to my mother in law. So what do I do on the said shopping trip? I go and park in the 'mums and children's space' because I feel that the elderly need to be thought of and not ignored, (although quite often I feel that I am conveying a child to the shops -no chance of her reading this so I am safe!) and of course in this day and age no brat is going to be conveyed to the shops that early by mum as they are all too busy taking in that bubble gum for the masses; yep CBBC TV.

So go and park in a mums and children's space, strike a blow for the oldie and if berated by a mum with children tell them to get a life and some exercise. My mother in law is busting for such a confrontation although luckily it's yet to happen. She did once get a 'Darth Vader' look from a security guard but when challenged he sensibly backed down.

So there we are dear reader; this month's diatribe. Any thoughts on any of the above? If so direct them to that splendid Chappie, the Editor. Or perhaps write a column yourself?

March has been a good month for us. We have had the joy of Pastor Paul and Jepye with some of their family with us. It was so good to see Paul in the pulpit again after nearly 3 years and at the men's breakfast. But like all good things it had to come to an end as they returned home again. Friends like them are hard to find, and I thank God for giving me that joy.

On the 13th of April we have a Pastor coming at 6pm to share with us about the Feast of the Passover. He is a part of a team called Christian Witness to Israel. This is a special service as we look forward to the Easter weekend. The time we remember the love of the Father who gave His Son as a payment for our sins and the Son Jesus for being willing to suffer that death that we may have life. But just like having a cheque for a £100,000 it is no good having that gift if we never claim it. God gave us the gift of salvation through His son Jesus but you need to claim it.

For yourself come and join us on Sunday the 20th at 11am to celebrate with us and share a coffee or tea after the service.

Have a good Easter weekend.

Pastor Pete
